

Business Awards & HOF winners announced

MANKATO — Several groups and individuals will be honored at the Greater Mankato Business Awards & Hall of Fame from 5:30-8:30 p.m. Nov. 15 at the Verizon Wireless Center.

This year's honorees are:

- Greater Mankato Business Hall of Fame Inductees: Paulsen Architects and Snell Motors.
- Greater Mankato Distinguished Business Award Recipient: Mankato MoonDogs.
- Entrepreneurial Business Award: WOW! Zone.

Greater Mankato Growth, and its affiliates the Greater Mankato Convention & Visitors Bureau and City Center Partnership, also will be presenting other awards at the event.

Greater Mankato Growth Awards:

- Brian Fazio Business Education Partnership Award: South Central College and Bolton & Menk Inc.
- Hap Halligan Leadership Award: David Wittenberg.
- Young Professional of the Year Award: Michael Jacobs. Greater Mankato Convention & Visitors Bureau Awards:
- Hospitality Award: CityArt Walking Sculpture Tour.
- Bring it Home Award: Tom Engstrom.

City Center Partnership CityDesign Awards of Excellence:

Please see WINNERS, Page B3

Article Continued Below

See WINNERS on Page B03

WINNERS: More info on Web

Continued from Page B1

- Renovation Over $3 million: HECO Building (Owner: Neubau Holdings II, LLC; Architect: I&S Group).
- Renovation Under $1 million: I&S Group Offices (Owner: Neubau Holdings II, LLC; Architect: I&S Group).
- New Construction Under $2 million: The Marigold (Owner: Vanyo Moody; Architect: Paulsen Architects).
- Facade Improvements: 327 Riverfront Drive (Owner: RW Carlstrom; Architect: Paulsen Architects).
- Downtown Detail: Neighbor's Italian Bistro (Owners: Patrick Person & Christopher Person; Architect: Paulsen Architects).

For more information on the event, including ticket information, visit greatermankato.com/businessawards.php.

Powered by TECNAVIA

Copyright 2011 Mankato Free Press