Free Legal Advice for Businesses through LegalClinic

MANKATO, Minn. (June 16, 2009) If new and emerging businesses have a few simple legal questions, LegalClinic provides the opportunity to meet with a qualified attorney for 30 minutes to receive free legal advice and determine the next steps to take.

The LegalClinic is provided through a partnership of LegalCORPS, Southern Minnesota Initiative Foundation, South Central Small Business Development Center (SBDC), and Greater Mankato Business Accelerator.

The program allows participants to meet with a qualified attorney and receive advice on contracts, leases, employment law, registering their business or another issue important to their business.

An important aspect of the program is the law firms that have volunteered their time to provide advice during these clinics. Volunteers for the LegalClinic come from:

Blethen, Gage & Krause PLLP
Gislason & Hunter
Farrish Johnson Law Office, Chtd.
Maschka, Riedy and Ries, PLLP

Eide Bailly has also volunteered to assist attorneys with entity selection questions to provide clients both a legal and accounting perspective.

Clinics are provided the first and third Wednesday of each month from 11 a.m.-1 p.m. by appointment only. For more information or to make an appointment contact Mary Oudekerk from the SBDC at 507.389.8893 or maryo@rndc.org.
