

Charlottesville Regional Chamber of Commerce

“... dedicated to representing private enterprise, promoting business and enhancing the quality of life in our Greater Charlottesville communities.”

cvillechamber.com

PO Box 1564 • Fifth & Market Streets • Charlottesville, Virginia 22902

Timothy Padraig Hulbert, IOM
President & Chief Executive Officer
Charlottesville Regional Chamber of Commerce

Timothy Hulbert was selected as President and Chief Executive Officer of the Charlottesville Regional Chamber of Commerce in March 2001.

The Charlottesville Regional Chamber of Commerce is dedicated to representing private enterprise, promoting business and enhancing the quality of life in the Greater Charlottesville communities. Founded in 1913, today the Chamber has 1,000 member enterprises. Together, Chamber member enterprises employ more than 45,000 men and women in the Greater Charlottesville region, representing an estimated total payroll of more than $1.3 billion a year.

In 2006, Mr. Hulbert was honored to receive the “Virginia Chamber Executive of the Year Award” presented to him by the Virginia Association of Chamber of Commerce Executives.

In 2011, Mr. Hulbert was honored to receive membership in the Institute for Organization Management, the premier professional organization management program and institute in the nation.

Prior to his current office, for 12 years Mr. Hulbert served as President & CEO of the Rensselaer County (NY) Regional Chamber of Commerce and its Rensselaer Gateway Development Corporation affiliate, serving the business and civic community of Troy, Rensselaer County and neighboring communities.

Before his career as a Chamber executive, Mr. Hulbert served on the executive staff of two New York State Transportation Commissioners, James Larocca and Franklin White, in the administration of Governor Mario M. Cuomo. In the 1970's, his public service also included service on the executive staff of New York State Energy Commissioner James Larocca in the administration of Governor Hugh L. Carey and as a Special Assistant to the late United States Congressman Ned Pattison.

In business Mr. Hulbert was a financial services consultant and manager with Equitable. He also worked as a professional communications and marketing consultant with Envision Communications, where he continues to consult on specialized accounts.

Mr. Hulbert grew up in Greene County in Upstate New York. He is a graduate of Christian Brothers Academy in Albany and Manhattan College (BA – Government).

Mr. Hulbert, his wife Bonnie Farone, a Physicians Liaison with the University of Virginia Health System, their 16-year old daughter Moira live in Charlottesville. He also has three adult sons. Daniel is pursuing a professional career in New York as a lyricist and recording artist; Sean is a Chemical Engineer (BS – Manhattan College) with the New York City Department of Environmental Protection; and, Michael (BA – University at Albany) is a customer service representative with Tiger Fuel, an oil/gas firm in Charlottesville.