Plenty of political forums this week

Along with the 1st District congressional debate (7 p.m. today at MSU's student union sponsored by Debate Minnesota), this week's political schedule includes two campaign debates sponsored by Greater Mankato Growth and one sponsored by a pair of organizations for the elderly.

At 6:30 p.m. today, Nicollet County Board candidates Bruce Beatty and Paul Engel will participate in an hour-long GMG debate at Trinity Lutheran Church in Nicollet. The two candidates are vying for the District 5 seat on the board.

At 7 p.m. Tuesday, North Mankato mayoral candidates Gary Zellmer and Mark Dehen will engage in an hourlong GMG debate at South Central College, Conference Center Room A.

And at 6:30 p.m. Thursday, the candidates for state House from District 23A and District 23B and for state Senate from District 23 have been invited to a 90-minute forum on issues
