College talent focus of seminar

MANKATO — Mankatobased accounting firm Abdo, Eick & Meyers along with Greater Mankato Growth and the College of Business at Minnesota State University, are partnering to host “Connect, Attract and Hire Top College Talent,” a seminar designed to help local businesses build successful recruitment strategy.

The seminar will be 7:30-9:30 p.m. Wednesday, Nov. 2, at MSU’s Centennial Student Union in room 253.

“ The Mankato region has tremendous collegiate talent available at multiple institutions, yet many local companies have a difficult time connecting with, attracting and hiring these students to stay in the region,” Donald Kreye, business development manager at Abdo, said in a statement. “We were no different, but through a unique strategy that involved listening to what the students wanted and having them participate in building the strategy, we now have tremendous brand awareness with students and are attracting and hiring the best students from local campuses.”

RSVP to Jon-Eric Urseth at jon-eric.urseth@aemcpas or by calling 952-715-3022.

Manufacturers to exhibit at job fair

MANKATO —

Manufacturing companies in the nine- county area of Blue Earth, Brown, Faribault, Le Sueur, Martin, Nicollet, Sibley, Waseca and Watonwan counties will participate in a manufacturing job fair from 2-7 p.m.

Tuesday, Oct. 25, at the Verizon Wireless Center.

There is no registration or fee for job seekers who attend.

Manufacturing companies seeking highly skilled workers will be present to accept resumes and speak with job seekers about the qualifications needed to obtain a career in manufacturing.

Manufacturing is growing in Minnesota, and there are jobs to be found, according to Jaime Nolan, executive director of the Minnesota Precision Manufacturing Association. Companies wishing to exhibit at the fair can register for the event by visiting the Upcoming Events page at www.mpma.com.
